

NOTICE OF VACANCY

We envision 6000+ Thinkers. Thinking is foundational to the development of self and society. It is the cornerstone of all creative ideas and problem solving, new scientific discoveries, new products and services, individual and organizational learning, education, business success, interpersonal and intrapersonal communications, all social change and even democracy itself. Our vision is what we see. It motivates us. Our vision is audacious.

Our Mission is to engage, educate, and empower. We will strive to engage all students in the importance and relevance of thinking; to educate every learner to communicate, comprehend, and collaborate for understanding; and to empower all in the ICSD to achieve academic excellence.

Position Title: 1.0 Speech Language Pathologist

Brief Description: The speech language pathologist is an integral member of the school community, grade level teams, RtI/support teams, crisis teams, and the CSE process. Working in cooperation with building leadership, educators, parents, and students, the speech-language pathologist will provide an inclusive approach to speech and language acquisition and development for students by providing direct therapy, consultation services, and speech improvement sessions to enable all children to access and progress in the general education curriculum. Ideal candidates will show experience with diverse cultures, anti-racist approaches to the particular work of a speech therapist, and a commitment to working with the school community towards the success of all students.
